INFORMATION:

SUBJECT:

"Year 2000" as it pertains to Toshiba America Information System's notebook computers.

INFORMATION:

Toshiba has analyzed its notebook computers to verify that they function correctly when the date changes from December 31, 1999 to January 1, 2000. This analysis was done on a hardware and BIOS level. Toshiba has concluded that all notebook computers containing BIOS version 5.0 and higher will function correctly when the date change occurs. Below is a listing of current machines that have or can be upgraded to BIOS version 5.0 or higher. Other hardware or software may or may not support the date change.
